PURPOSE OF THE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The concurrent resolution, as amended, states that the Congress favors the granting of the status of permanent residence in the cases of certain aliens, named in the concurrent resolution, who are embraced as displaced persons under the provisions of section 4 of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended by Public Law 555, Eighty-first Congress. The purpose of the amendment is to add the names of 10 displaced persons.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Section 4 of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended by Public Law 555, Eighty-first Congress, provides for adjustment of the immigration status in the cases of certain aliens who establish that they lawfully entered the United States as nonimmigrants under section 3 or as nonquota immigrant students under subsection (e) of section 4 of the Immigration Act of May 26, 1924, as amended. The act provides that if the Attorney General shall, upon consideration of all the facts and circumstances of each case, determine that the alien has been of good moral character for the preceding 5 years and that such alien is qualified under the provisions of said section 4 of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended by Public Law 555, Eighty-first Congress, the Attorney General shall report to the Congress all of the pertinent facts in the case. If during the session of the Congress at which a case is reported or prior to the end of the session of the Congress next following the session at which a case is reported, the Congress passes a concurrent resolution stating in substance that it favors the granting of the status of permanent residence to such alien, the Attorney General is authorized, upon receipt of a fee of $18, to record the admission of the alien for permanent residence as of the date of the alien's last entry into the United States. If prior to the end of the session of the Congress next following the session at which a case is reported, the Congress does not pass such resolution, the Attorney General is required to deport such alien. The act further provides that the number of displaced persons who shall thus be granted the status of permanent residence shall not exceed 15,000. Upon the grant of status of permanent residence to an alien pursuant to said section 4, of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended by Public Law 555, Eighty-first Congress, the Secretary of State shall, if the alien was a quota immigrant at the time of entry, reduce by one the immigration quota of the country of the alien's nationality as defined in section 12 of the Immigration Act of May 26, 1924, for the fiscal year then current or the next succeeding fiscal year in which a quota number is available, except that such quota deductions shall be made within certain limitations.

Included in the concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 111), as amended, are 236 cases: Three were referred to the Congress on March 31, 1950; 26 on August 1, 1950; 18 were referred on August 15, 1950; 23 were among a group of 25 referred on September 1, 1950; 26 were among a group of 29 referred on September 15, 1950; 96 were among a group of 121 referred on December 1, 1950; 21 were among a group of 23 referred on December 15, 1950; 1 was referred on June 15, 1950; 1 was referred on July 3, 1950; 1 was referred on July 17, 1950; 1 was referred on January 15, 1951; 1 was referred on February 1, 1951; 1 was referred on February 15, 1951; 3 were referred on March 1, 1951; 2 were referred on March 15, 1951; 3 were referred on April 2, 1951; 4 were referred on May 1, 1951; 2 were referred on May 15, 1951; 1 was referred on July 16, 1951; and 2 were referred on August 1, 1951.

Of the groups of cases referred from August 1, 1950, to December 15, 1950, inclusive, 18 have been previously approved by the Congress; 12 are currently being held for further study and investigation and 2 have subsequently been withdrawn by the Attorney General and returned to the jurisdiction of the Department of Justice.

The committee, after consideration of all the facts in each case referred to in the concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 111), as amended, recommends that the concurrent resolution do pass.
